

The background is a dark red, textured surface. Overlaid on this are several white, thin, geometric lines that intersect to form various triangular and polygonal shapes. These lines are primarily located in the upper half of the image, with some extending downwards. The overall style is minimalist and modern.

THE MESSENGER

NINETEEN FIFTY SIX

my dear Frankie,

Thursday night at Julia's party we had a serious talk which I enjoyed very much. It isn't very often that I talk serious but, as I said that night, sometimes I feel like being with someone who enjoys being serious for a change.

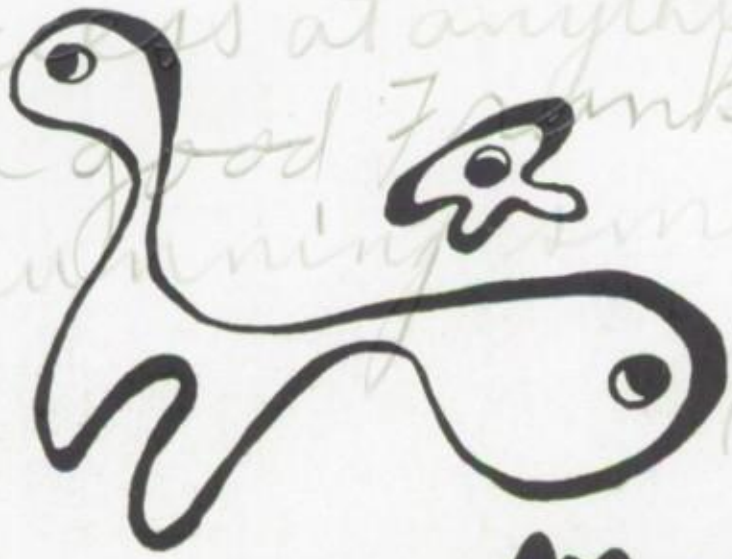

I haven't actually known you very long, but I have had loads of fun being around you. From our little talk the other night I imagine you gathered the opinion that I don't give a damn for anything. Well, your's right. Things don't matter to much to me.

My time here is limited. You and lots of others know that. I don't worry about that and know one else does either. That's the way I want it and hope it will remain this way.

I think you are a fine girl and I'm sure that the future holds much in store for you. The world

Frankie Davis

owes you nothing and I think you realized that fact. If you continue life being the same Frankie and getting along with others as you have thus far I'm sure you'll make a success at anything you go at.
Be good Frankie and keep things running smooth.

An unknown idiot!!

MRS. SORRELS

Foreword

This was the year—

The final year for some of us, the beginning for others, of our sometimes harried, usually happy, but always busy, years at D.H.S.

This was the year . . . for the assembly programs in the new auditorium . . . the resounding echoes of hammers and saws as the building seemed almost torn apart and old rooms were reformed into the new cafeteria and classrooms.

In times to come we will look back often on this year, which, though it closed those first stages of our lives, was only the beginning of greater ones to come.

Senior Class History

"What we are to be, we are now becoming."

When we first came to Durham High, we were "Skins"—individuals from different schools, different homes, and with different ideas. We realized that the next three years would be the most wonderful we'd ever spend.

The preface in our book was Orientation Week. After this followed the election of the Sophomore Class officers: President, Johnson Ross; Vice-President, Morris Weisner; Secretary, Mary Maddry; and Treasurer, Michael May.

The first chapter in our book was very important in that it shaped the events of our school days for the coming three years. We joined clubs, societies, and Student Council committees. Many of us signed up for Hi-Ricket and Messenger Staffs, and went out for various teams. We bought Student Tickets and sat in the bleachers yelling for the Bulldogs who came through with a tie with Reynolds High of Winston-Salem for the State Championship. Taking part in Homecoming, we elected Elaine Herndon as our candidate. The Sophomore Class showed their creative ability by having the winning floats in the Parade.

Our first touch of social life was the Christmas Dance, "Beneath the Christmas Tree," sponsored by the Student Council. Soon after followed our exams. We then united in the presentation to the school of "Sophomore Stunt Day," and later produced a screamingly successful "Backward Wedding."

The second chapter in our book was our Junior Year. We had then hit a happy medium in that we were not leaders but then we weren't Skins. We started our year by electing Morris Weisner, President; Johnson Ross, Vice-President; Barbara Fortune, Secretary; and Michael May, Treasurer.

Florence Grantham was our candidate for Homecoming Queen. Again our class won top honors in the Parade. Our wonderful football team won Eastern AAA honors, only to lose to Greensboro for the State title.

Next we attended the Christmas Dance, "Silver Belles," with the girls asking the boys. Boys, do you remember how sweet you were beforehand?

In early spring we presented our Junior Talent Show, "Our Best to You." The highlight of the show was the French Can-Can Girls. With our money we made from the Show, we gave the Seniors a wonderful going-away dance in the form of the Junior-Senior Prom. "Cherry Pink and Apple-Blossom White" was the theme. Much to our delight, the Seniors gave a superb performance of the entertaining play, "Our Town."

Seven of our classmates were inducted into the National Honor Society, which was quite an honor. Also delegates were chosen for Girls' and Boys' State.

In May we again elected officers, this time for the Student Council and the Senior Class. Jim Herring, Johnson Ross, Ellen Harris, and Coleman Markham were chosen for the Student Council; while Cecil Cooke, Jr., Morris Weisner, Gail Joyner, and J. D. Wellons held honors for the Senior Class.

The next chapter of our book will be the most remembered. It was our third—and last. We began the year as leaders—Presidents of various organizations, captains of teams, and leaders in our Student government.

The Class of '56 was accredited with the first Fall Festival that was ever held at D. H. S. Again elected by her classmates, Florence reigned as "Fall Festival" Queen. For the third year, our class walked off with the Parade prizes. Our football team came through with the Eastern AAA Championship under the excellent leadership of captains Johnson Ross and Jimmy Markham.

In an impressive candlelight ceremony, forty-nine Seniors were tapped into the National Honor Society.

Soon followed the first Senior Day at D. H. S. With Cecil presiding, the Senior Class gave to the school a well-remembered auditorium program. All Seniors wore their "Sunday best" and really looked wonderful.

"Golden Fantasy" was the theme of our Christmas Dance. Amid gold and green decorations, the Student Body danced to Seventh Heaven and back.

"Ten Little Indians" was chosen for the Senior Play. With Beverly Everitt and Cranny Cranford in the leading roles, and the capable directing of Mrs. Sorrels, we really "did ourselves proud."

Our classmates now became the stars of the basketball and baseball teams. All of a sudden it was time for the "Junior-Senior." Now we were the guests, and it almost seemed like a farewell party. We finally were called to the office to be measured for our caps and gowns.

And then, the last week! Awards Day, Class Night, the Baccalaureate Sermon, and Graduation itself. Our last page was the marvelous Graduation Dance. This was the ending of our wonderful book of high school days.

Now that we are Alumni, it is hard to believe that we cannot relive our wonderful times. We can only read about them, hoping that others on their road to success may be rewarded with as magnificent an education in books and good times as we.

“There is no way to live again
The time that we have lost,
And all our riches on this earth
Could never pay the cost;
Each hour and each second is Beyond the last recall,
With every movement of the clock
That hangs upon the wall;
We cannot turn the minutes back
To stay the hands of time,
Or melt away the mountain that
We did not try to climb;
Each moment is a particle
That quickly disappears,
And every moment multiplies
By days and months and years;
So let us make each second count
And let us concentrate On doing all the good we can
Before it is too late.”

—James J. Metcalfe.

As Juniors we learned the technique of selling tags, that is, football tags to all our D. H. S. friends.

As the end of fall semester drew near we began hearing about some sort of talent show we were supposed to give soon. After exams the talk grew louder and louder; soon we spoke of nothing else. We signed up for committees and the production finally began to take shape. The theme of our 1956 Junior Talent Show was "Club 11" and we felt it worthy of the distinction of being the first given in the new auditorium.

We nominated officers for our big senior year and were then faced with deciding who to elect.

At last we began work on the Junior-Senior Prom. Day and night we labored; finally the decorations were finished. All too soon the dance was history and we had only memories left.

Now we face our Senior year, and we feel that the experiences we have gained during this year will help us to meet the future with wisdom.

CLASS OFFICERS

Douglas Crabtree, President; Peggy Carroll, Secretary; Bill Whichard, Vice-President; Jimmy Gaulden, Treasurer.

We were challenged to step in line and like a well-disciplined soldier we fought a fight. After a week of orientation and discovering "who was who" we elected very capable leaders. What fun it was with such a cooperative group to make our floats, our very first ones.

First, we worked together on the budget drive and homeroom decoration contest.

Our next worry was raising money for our class. We finally decided on sponsoring a student-faculty game, which was a great success. Then second semester we sold stationery engraved with the school emblem.

The Sophomores were well-represented in the Talent Show, on the Varsity Football and Basketball teams. The Sophomore teams were an inspiration to the school.

"On to Victory" dear old "skins" and keep up the good work and spirit at D. H. S.

Secretary, Ellen Harris

Treasurer, Coleman Markham

This was a year of work for the Council. We started the year with a gay party—a trophy polishing session the Saturday before the opening of school. We welcomed the confused Sophs with a helpful Orientation Week program and later received their help on our Standing Committees. We went over the top on our Budget Drive, and so were able to have a very nice Christmas Dance, “Golden Fantasy.”

After several meetings of the Student Body, it was decided that we should hold a Courtesy Week to foster better student relations.

It was a big success, even if we did get aggravated with the liners dividing the hall and making us walk on the right side.

As the year drew to a close, the time came for us to step down and give our places to the newly elected rising Juniors and Seniors, the new Student Council.

Inter-Club Council

OFFICERS

Chairman, Johnson Ross

Vice-Chairman, Eddie Ridout

Secretary-Treasurer, Beverly Howard

Our year began with our part in Orientation Week, in which each president introduced himself and his officers. This was followed by speeches on "The Reason for Joining a Club or Society," "The Work of the Inter-Club Council," "Your Responsibility at D. H. S."

In midfall D. H. S. saw the cheery council members with their Student Directories, our annual project. This program was a great success with the guidance of Miss Ruby Williams.

Our year closed with a grand social, leaving only a little "Grub Stake" for next year's group.

Everyone was assured of plenty of activity when all the various committees were assigned. Every single member had definite assignments.

It was a lot of fun telling at the party how we earned our "Service Dollar." Katy was a good hostess, and entertainment was no problem, once Marty, Mike, Morris, and Johnson Arrived!

We were often told that the induction ceremony was one of the best in years, and were proud of our part in drying the happy tears of the newly inducted members!

It was very heart warming to plant the tree on the lawn of the auditorium, and were we ever happy that the NHS of '56 could do something to beautify our school.

And especially we were proud of the fact that Russell Hollers was elected President of the State Division of the NHS, and the convention next year will be at D. H. S.

"How can we possibly raise all that money?" we asked, when reminded that we must raise one hundred dollars for a scholarship to be presented to our most outstanding member. We staged a rummage sale at the Armory and actually enjoyed preparing for it. To supplement our funds we sold greeting cards. We like to think that the ease with which we got orders for our cards was due to our expert salesmanship.

With our sister society we held a dance, "Blue Star," which in everyone's opinion was a great success.

At Christmas time we had a beautiful program in the auditorium featuring readings and solos presented by our members.

We bought keps for the first time and wore them proudly.

Our spring social topped off the year and those of us who will be here next year began looking forward to fall meetings.

Brogden II's numerous activities for the year have been greatly varied. Our goal being "to promote and increase the enjoyment, understanding, and appreciation of that which is highest and best in literature, in the culture of the world, and in the fellowship of our friends," we have enjoyed at our regular meetings, book reviews, debates, and reports on the lives of famous authors given by members of our society. To top these meetings off, we were served refreshments by our monitors.

To complete our year we joined with our sister society, Brogden I, and gave two semi-formal dances which were held at Christmas and in the spring.

Our society has had a very good advisor this year, Colonel Robert Knight.

Our programs have consisted of speakers, a study of American and English Literature, discussion on Courtesy Week, and a variety show.

Refreshments were served at almost every meeting. A Christmas party and our spring social, a hamburger fry, were our main social activities.

We tried to increase better literary understanding, as well as fun and we felt successful at the close of this year.

President	Morris Weisner
Vice-President	Cecil Cooke
Secretary	Fred Tyree
Treasurer	William Dominick
Chaplain	Tommy Ricks

This year under leadership of Morris Weisner and Miss Page, Page Literary Society has soared to new heights in this haven of literary societies.

The programs were planned to instruct, inspire, and give practical experience in various types of public speaking.

The annual social gathering, a banquet, was given as a climax to the year's work. The program included music and a toast by the boys and an address by a guest speaker of prominence.

As an incentive to growth, each year, the society gives to its most outstanding senior the honor of having his name inscribed on the Page Cup.

MEMBERS—First row: Tommy Glymph, Ken Wheller, Tommy Foster, Mack Green, Bert Haywood, Bobby Davenport, Pete Shepherd, Tommy Kale, Jimmy Holsinger. Second row: Jim Herring, Terry Odom, Kenny McCullers, Geoffrey Ward, Bill Carr, Gerald Bowen, Bobby Pendergrass, A. The Southgate Society this year was really on the ball. We've had lots of fun. Along with programs on literature and authors, we've had outside speakers and films.

Everyone has been working toward a better society. The seniors, especially, have put forth an extra effort to compete for the medal awarded to the senior doing the most outstanding work in the society.

With the closing of the school year, we elected our new officers for the coming year. Everyone bid farewell to the graduating seniors, and the society once again disbanded until the following year.

"This was the year" in which we learned to develop our personalities. A contest, "Developing One's Personality" was sponsored in our society and a medal was presented on Award's Day to the girl writing the best essay.

Everyone enjoyed giving food to the Salvation Army at Thanksgiving.

Our dance, "Valentine Splendor" held with Tillett in February was enjoyed by all who were caught in Cupid's Trap.

We had bands, speakers, and singers to entertain us. Under the wonderful advisorship of Mrs. Poston, we had a fabulous year!

In North Carolina, the Durham High School D.E.'ers are one of the most outstanding groups in operation.

For the last several years, the Durham organization has dominated the various conventions held by the association.

This year Winford Johnson won first place in the District Convention Public Speaking contest and took second place honors for the State Meet. Betty Spicer was elected Secretary-Treasurer of the State Association for the year '55-'56.

The D. H. S. club figured pretty well in Durham as well as in other North Carolina cities. They held a banquet at Harvey's, with Alan Manchester, Dean of Undergraduates at Duke University, Raymond Browning, President of the Durham Merchant's Association, and the head of the State D.E. Association, Mr. W. G. Slatery, as special guests.

Although, they experienced an excellent year in 1955-1956, the future looks brighter for next year's D. O. Club.

This year the local chapter joined the State Agricultural Industrial Club, a state-wide organization for high school diversified occupation groups. Next year the local organization will send delegates to the state convention.

A Christmas dance was held during the holiday season at the Agricultural Building of the Farmer's Exchange and about one-hundred enjoyed the evening's entertainment.

The year's activities came to a climax with the annual banquet which was held at Harvey's Cafeteria. The D. O.'s and their dates enjoyed an excellent meal and heard a most interesting speaker, Mr. Nile Hunt. About one-hundred and fifteen people attended the gala affair.

This was the years for Jesters Dramatics Club too. We have a new motto: "All play and no work makes Jack an even duller boy."

During the year we presented several panel discussion groups on "going steady," and courtesy, skits using members of the club as actors and "I've Got a Secret Show."

For our Christmas program we sat in on Playmaker's annual production "Dickens's Christmas Carol."

Our club had a wonderful social life this year for in March we held a dance for all members and their dates.

In the fall we learned how to make up for plays. We participated in skits and guest speakers were invited to build up our interest by dramatics.

The greatest commotion was brought about when we engaged in parliamentary procedure. Even though no one seemed to agree with the other we did learn how to carry on a better organized program. We presented a spring fashion show and our beauty was brought out in the open.

The highlight of the year was the banquet which was held in the spring with guest speakers. In all we had a great year!

"A play! So soon! How can we possibly do it?", everyone wondered. We had barely welcomed our sophomores before we followed our tradition of being "fustest with the mostest" and gave the first (and best!) play of the year, "The Old Lady Shows Her Medals." We all slaved but found gaiety galore and learned about play production too.

For Christmas we gave our advisor, Mrs. Lois Vick, a silver bowl as a small remembrance of all the things she has done for us. We celebrated the Yule season at Mary's wonderful open house.

We also, were treated to a demonstration of stage lighting by Leamond Dean, heard a delightful presentation of the "Christmas Carol" in radio-script form, saw several exceedingly humorous interpretations of some of Shakespeare's immortal scenes, gave a medal to our outstanding senior, and presented the school with a make-up container.

This was the year—for Mummers—we really were on the ball! Our main project for the year was our play, "Curse You, Jack Dalton," a one-act melodrama! We made so much money that we were at a loss as to how to spend it, and finally decided to give a medal on Awards Day to the most outstanding dramatist in our Club. Also we "Blew" some of the money on a great social which we shared with the Thespians. We sponsored a speaker, Mrs. Charles Haynes, from the Theatre Guild, and one of our best programs was a Make-up demonstration given by some of the capable people in our group. We really enjoyed this year, and those of us who leave (via graduation) are kinda' sorry they won't be with us next year.

Play games in French? We were aghast; soon though, we realized what fun they could be. Our Christmas party was one we will not soon forget—especially that delicious Yule Log cake. Mmmmmmm. How could anyone make a cake that tasted so good?

We corresponded with French young people and in this manner learned much more about the French people than we possibly could from books.

Our big project was the spring assembly program at which several of our own members were tapped into the French National Honor Society. We worked long and hard on planning this program and our work paid off, for the ceremony was very impressive.

On October 5 we were hostess for the District IV F. H. A. Rally which had around one thousand students from about fifteen different counties in the Piedmont Area of North Carolina.

We were chairman of the Durham Orange Bi-County F. H. A. talent show which was given to raise money for the North Carolina flood relief. We raised one hundred dollars to be sent for this fund.

For our Christmas social we met in the cottage and wrapped packages of food that were given to the Welfare Department to be distributed to needy people.

The Bi-County F. H. A. had a social at Forest Hills Club House which was a great success.

Our annual Mother-Daughter Banquet which was held in the cottage was one of our biggest projects of the year. We all enjoyed having our Mothers present for this affair.

"Who will the winner be?" This question echoed in our minds all year long. In the spring the faculty chose the girl most likely to become a teacher and named her "Miss Future Teacher" of Durham High. The suspense was terrific as to who was the best qualified. Our president, Betsey Meyer, attended a convention in Raleigh and brought back many applicable ideas for us.

At one of our meetings Mrs. Rosa Tillett spoke to us on the essentials of primary education and also related several of her own teaching experiences. We were also very lucky to have some Duke coeds who are in the F. T. A. organization at Duke speak to us on the responsibilities and requirements of a teacher.

We made plans to visit North Durham grade school one week and observe teaching methods and formulate ideas.

Not only did we gain valuable insight into the teaching profession, but we also had a lot of fun this year, in our meetings and our socials.

We began our year by planning a Christmas tree which we decorated with geometric designs and then placed in the cafeteria. We received many compliments on our project and were quite proud of it.

We visited State College, finding especially interesting the electronics computers. Also we paid a visit to the Duke Engineering Building.

Perhaps the highlight of the year was a series of fascinating discussions on measurement sponsored by the Duke Engineering School. At another meeting we were shown slides illustrating use of geometry in bridges, architecture, and many things we had not thought of before.

We even had the distinction of being written up in the Mathematics Teacher, which made us feel very important. Last but not least, we held our social, the perfect end to a fabulous year!

The Library Club, which has social entertainment along with programs, also enjoys serving faculty and pupils, making displays and exhibits, and helping to create a greater love of books and their contribution to a fuller life.

For four consecutive years our scrapbook has won a trophy at the annual convention of the North Carolina High School Library Association. This year the scrapbook is dedicated to Mrs. Frances Patton and named Miss Dove's "Dovelet."

The annual United Nations Party this year honored foreign students in Durham High. Pen Pals are making friends with pupils in other countries.

We sponsored Book Week Assembly with Miss Jane Wilson as guest speaker, and a Recruitment Program with Mrs. Spears Hicks featuring Librarianship as a Career for members and twenty invited guests from the Junior High Schools.

The Party honoring the senior members of the Club was a pleasant finale to a year filled with varied and happy experiences.

Secretary-Treasurer	Flora Sally

This was the year the Concert Choir did new and different things. For the first time we gave an operetta, "The Pirates of Penzeance," on the stage of the new auditorium and everyone went around humming tunes about pirates and policemen. We took part in the annual Christmas

Carol Service and an inspiring Easter Program. We almost didn't make it to District Contest in High Point, but we had a good time. We'll never forget our trip to Greensboro and the Music Festival. Our year was ended by our first Spring Concert in the new auditorium.

First row: Anne Burnette, Judy House, Patsy Mills, Angeline Norris, Carolyn Tally, Gerry Elliott, Elizabeth Phillips, Elaine Roberson, Betsey Meyer, Joy Byrd, Jeannie Thomas, Shelba Hawley, Denise Ellis, Janice Pulley. Second row: Joanne Emory, Barbara Baker, Scotty Maupin, Peggy Crabtree, Marjorie Wall, Connie Kissell, Carol Williamson, Flora Sally, Anne Cole Rose, Carolyn Kimes, Elender Dennis, Barbara Watson, Janice Trickey, Ruth Ann Davis. Third row: Linda Rickman, Linda Higgs, Ann Davis, Betty Spicer, Coleman Markham, Rex Henderson, Marc Roy, Nick Butler, Kenneth Oakley, Gwen Torrence, Lynette Stanley, Barbara Fletcher, Mary Lib Knight, Joanne Gordon. Fourth row: Anne Searboro, Billie Peele, Jane Shaw, Mary Mitchell, Richard Long, Tommy Glymph, Bobby Matthews, Gene Brown, Bobby Stamper, Anne Day, Betty Sue Lewis, Katherine Fuquay, Doris Daniels, Gwen Cooke, Sylvia Lloyd. Fifth row: Alice Elmore, Phyllis Duke, Betty McGee, Margaret Walker, Maida Mary Newsome, Charles Biggs, Bill Miller, Lucius Bigelow, Alvin Lesperance, Bill Murphy, Murtis Carver, Carolyn Lindsay, Willette Wallace, Ollie Kirby, Joanna Huffer, Beryl Rosser, Earlene Poole.

If something unusually wrong didn't come up, then something was bound to be wrong with the issue. Everyone laughed at the early deadline, but managed to get all the copy in, one way or the other. Somehow every issue came out on time.

Mary was always nagging the editors to get their articles in on time, but that was futile nagging.

Some of the lucky staff members had the privilege of invading New York, and it was pretty hard to work with them for the three months preceding the trip. We were certainly proud of our "repeat performance" for a Medalist rating.

EDITORIAL—First row: Eleanor Martin, Marriotte Churchill, Margart Hamblen, Frances Owen, Sally Bovard. Second row: Michael May, John Adams, Charlotte Hamlin, Marty Hamilton, Robert Aldridge.

Roll out the drums; let's have some fun; here they come—the D. H. S. Band with our assortment of instruments. Mr. Schear waved his wand and out music came at all the home football games and two out-of-town games and the spectacular shows during half-time. Special arrangement was made for the State Championship game.

This was the Year for the BMC, too. After we elected officers in January, we realized that to have a little dough on hand to make our all-important trip, we needed to use our brains and brawn(?). Thus was born the Ricky Rat Show, presented to a most appreciative audience. The funds raised provided a most exciting trip to Florida, and who cares about peeling, sunburnt faces, and peroxided hair anyway?

All of us in the GMC had a very joyful year. Much work was done towards the improvement of our three main sports—volleyball, basketball, and softball.

Through our "talents," we obtained money to make our trips to Greensboro, and High Point to the annual Play Days.

In May we elected officers for the oncoming year. Our Seniors were given their bon-voyage and everyone is anxiously waiting for school to begin in September for more good times in GMC!

Wasn't it a great year for the G.A.A.? If you've noticed the G.A.A.'s looking a little chubbier now than they did last fall, it's because they have been sampling so much of the food they were selling to make money for those fun-filled trips to Greensboro and High Point.

We were entertained by Miss Vickers from Belks, who spoke to us about make-up and Kenneth Willett who sang and played the guitar.

Our afternoons were filled with volley-ball, basketball, softball, and tennis practice.

All in all our year was a pretty active and enjoyable one.

WHEN setting type we give due consideration to the ultimate purpose . . . In deciding whether to use linotype, monotype or hand composition, we first ascertain the function of the particular piece of work. Each method was designed for a specific service, therefore initial cost is beside the question. We shall be glad to assist you in deciding which of the three will do the best job for your particular problem. Our composing room service is planned for today's demands.

QUALITY PRINTING SINCE 1885

THE SKILL OF

Having had the opportunity of serving the business, industrial and educational institutions of this area since 1927, has enabled us to acquire the knowledge, skill and experience so necessary in the production of finer printing plates.

Keeping pace with the progress of these institutions during these years has placed us in an excellent position to offer the very best in service and quality workmanship to meet the ever-increasing needs of the Graphic Arts industry.

Our pledge for the future is to uphold our enviable reputation as MAKERS OF FINER PRINTING PLATES by a continued strict adherence to the conviction that every engraving should be within itself a master work of art.

Autographs

Dear Frankie,

This is a hell of a note but anyway here goes.
I'm going to tell you a story of "How it Goes". Man
I think you're great, you know that but you're just too good for me. Even though you're hell on wheels. You haven't got a damn brain but you're all the way. Ha!
I love ^{you} ~~that~~ ^{that's} short and sweet and ends this chapter of my new book "How To Be a Maniac". I'll never forget you, you're great. Be good see you around I hope.

Love you,
Richard

Dear Frankie,

Since I don't know what to say I'll just write a couple of lines about something I know absolutely nothing about. Honest I can't think of ~~any~~ thing nice to say except that I like chubby women -

Love,
Dick

Dear Frankie,

Autographs

I'm in, so the treatment begins for Daddy Diddy and every damn body so let's get plastered and have a party. — I love to eat, drink and be merry. Although I may be caught, it matters naught, my mother puts me down — my daddy puts me to shame, but I keep on drinking just the same.
I'm light, bright, and almost white and I don't even like what I eat. One of these days I'll wise up.
Be a good kid Frankie and take life easy. I'll be over at old D.H.S. next year and maybe there will be some fabulous times for all. If I don't see you at D.H.S.
I'll see you at the Mardi Gras.

Love,

J. S.

Autographs

Dear Frankie,
 So looks like I've gotten most of you left over, and they've all been great.
 You must've brought 'em up right.
 been all the new ones forgot today. It see you in the west.
 Love,

Dear "Frank"

Yash, we've had a "hell" of a year. I'll have a ball at the beach. You're a great gal. Stay that way and you'll be doin' okay. I hope we can be friends forever. I like to have life-long friends. They're the best kind in the world. Don't forget we've got a date for the 2nd week in August. Don't forget our song "Down in Mexico". Maybe we can go down some day and look up that "cat" named Joe.

Be good and don't do anything I wouldn't do.

Seeya,

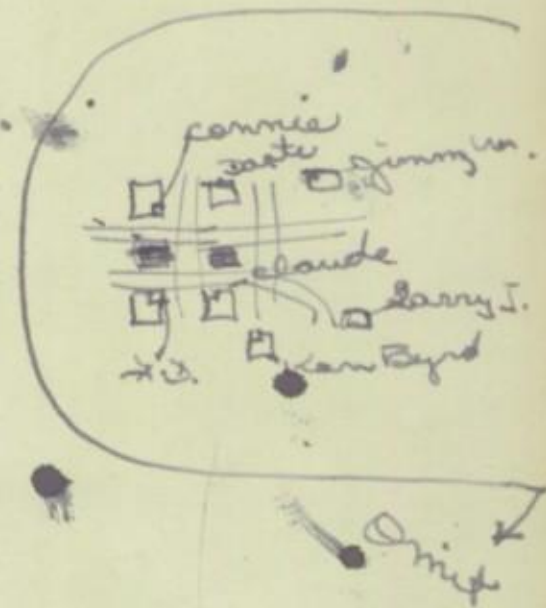

Bobbie ("Bubbles")

Frankie,

It has been nice knowing you all this many years. Loads of luck.
